ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT

ANNUAL REPORT TO PARLIAMENT

1985-1986

INTRODUCTION

In accordance with Section 72 of the Access to Information Act, the International Development Research Centre is hereby pleased to submit its annual report to Parliament as required by the Act.

The report is necessarily brief since only one request for information was received during the reporting period under the provisions of the Access to Information Act.

IMPLEMENTATION

The Centre reviewed the steps taken during the implementation phase to ensure that appropriate systems and procedures were in place for the effective control and direction of all Access to Information requests.

MODIFICATIONS TO THE ACCESS REGISTER

The entries to the 1985 Access Register were reviewed. Modifications were made in accordance with the standard format established by the Treasury Board Secretariat. Only minor textual revisions were required to update the existing information.

DELEGATION INSTRUMENT

The officials, by title, who exercise delegated authority and who are thereby authorized to approve disclosures are:

- the Director of the Human Resources Division; and
- the Director of the Fellowships and Awards Division.

STATISTICAL REPORTS

The International Development Research Centre has received, from the media, a formal request for information under the Act during the period April 1, 1985 to March 31, 1986. Quarterly reports reflecting this activity were provided to Treasury Board as required under Part IV of the Interim Policy Guide.

Attached is the statistical report for the period covered by this Annual Report.

COSTS

There have been no costs in providing services under the Access to Information Act and no fees have been collected. No funds have been spent on any additional facilities or equipment. In addition, a very limited amount of time was spent by the coordinator on matters relating to the Act, namely attendance at sessions and some internal contacts.
